THESE DAYS:

Powell Packs Political Power

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

IT IS OF historical importance to note a political trend which, while currently it is limited to New York City, shows signs of developing in all the big cities of the North. It might be called the Powell Phenomenon. It deals with the political position and attitudes of Adam Clayton Powell, Jr., a Negro clergyman and member of Congress.

SOKOLSKY

Powell is a brilliant orator, holds degrees from three universities, is pastor of the largest Negro church in the world, is a member of the House of Representatives from Harlem and although a registered Democrat asserts the authority of political boss of the Negro and Puerto Rican voters of New York. It is not beyond probability that he can become the boss of both the Republican and Democratic Parties in New York County where the Negro and Puerto Rican vote could produce an absolute majority.

Powell got into difficulties with the Federal authorities when certain political and church assistants of his were charged with income tax violations, were tried and convicted. It was part of this situation that developed an income tax case involving Adam Clayton Powell, Jr. and his second wife, Hazel Scott, the pianist who lives in Paris.

Powell who had always been a Democrat, who had often supported left-wing movements in Harlem, threw his party over in 1956 and endorsed the candidacy of President Eisenhower. The cry of a deal went up throughout New York, the assumption being that Powell had made a deal with the Republican Party to swing the Harlem Negroes and Puerto Rican from the Democratic Party to the Republican Party.

As such deals cannot be proved one way or the other, nothing came of the excitement except that it took a Federal Grand Jury in New York, 16 months to bring a trivial bill against Powell which seems to be overly-long for such a problem. In fact, Thomas Bolan, the Assistant United States Attorney who handled the matter, resigned from government service because he has contended that the pressures put on him to drop the matter were unseemly and unethical.

After 14 months, the Grand Jury threatening to ignore the Department of Justice and seeking its own information and even employing its own counsel, an indictment was handed down. Instead of the Powell case being tried, threats were made against Bolan and also against William Buckley, Jr., editor of "The National Review," for providing the Grand Jury with information which any citizen may do.

Demanded Negro Solidarity

POWELL WAS THUS ABLE to establish among his constituency the fact that although he is a Democrat, he is an untouchable among the Republicans. He then demanded Negro solidarity behind him. This was expressed at a meeting of the Republican New York County Committee's Executive Committee in which one of the Negro Republican leaders of Harlem took the open position that if the Democrats refused to nominate Powell for Congress, the Republicans would have to do it or the Negro Republican leaders would have to leave their party. This assertion of Negro solidarity was based on the statement that if one Negro is indicted, all Negroes are indicted.

Three further evidences of Powell's power over law and government appear:

1. Although indicted on income tax evasion, Powell is not being tried. The United States Attorney, Paul Williams, has been named as a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination by the Republican New York County Chairman, Thomas Curran;

2. The Democratic Party has found it difficult to get a Negro candidate to run against Powell in Harlem although that was finally achieved;

3. The Republicans in Harlem will either nominate Powell or run no candidate against him.

It is to be noted that the Republican Party in New York City is moribund with practically no following except in Queens County. The one N. Y. County district which sent a Republican to the House of Representatives is now so upset by factionalism that it is doubtful whether even that district will remain Republican. The party's organization has little standing in the city.

Within a year, a struggle is bound to develop for leadership. One of the contenders, John Roosevelt, is a novice who is said to reside outside the city. He is being promoted by Tex McCrary, a radio broadcaster and public relations counsel.

It would not be impossible for Powell, a Democrat, to take over the Republican organization, if he runs in the 1958 Congressional election.

The Danger of Adam Powell

Adam Clayton Powell jr. is a demagogue of racism, therefore dangerous to his country and community.

It's a reckless and disgraceful thing for the Harlem Congressman, a Christian minister and longtime champion of civil rights, to tell his church members that certain political opponents (Carmine De Sapio and Hulan Jack) had "better not walk up and down Harlem streets too much."

Furthermore, it's incredible that Powell should turn a gathering of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, meant to celebrate the fourth anniversary of the Supreme Court decision on desegregation, into a personal carnival of hate.

For that, Powell got his prompt comeuppance from the N. A. A. C. P., which dissociated itself completely and warned: "We cannot condemn racism in others while using it ourselves."

Yet Powell, a veteran Left-wing breast-beater, is campaigning for an eighth term in Congress on precisely this emotional incitement of racialism. The man screams against "white politicians downtown" because Tammany refused to redesignate him. He is also well aware of the Federal indictment against him on charges of income tax evasion. So Powell shouts that "this is a white man's country of dedicated hypocrisy."

In the face of such inflammatory stuff, the Republican leaders of the 16th District sat down and indorsed Powell, a Tammany cast-off. It was surrender to expediency, a sorry and preposterous saddling of the party with an outsider unwanted by the county leadership. Tom Curran and Mrs. Preston Davie, for instance, decidedly wish no part of Powell. Here it would be well for the entire county executive committee to express its forthright anti-Powell sentiment so that over-all Republican policy remains sharp and clear.

Powell's test comes in the Aug. 12 primary election. His Democrat-Liberal opponent is able Councilman Earl Brown. Powell's aim, of course, is to run off with all the nominations. This, if it happens, would be the triumph of vicious prejudice and demagoguery. For Powell, by his utterances, has proved himself a self-seeker who will stop at nothing. To give power to such a firebrand, who deliberately exploits the most explosive issue in the country, is cause for local and national worry.

Certainly the Republican party, that of Lincoln and Eisenhower, does not wish to win with Adam Powell or any other [illegible]

POWELL BARS VISITORS

His Washington Office Busy Preparing for Primaries

WASHINGTON, June 3 (AP) The Congressional office of Representative Adam Clayton Powell Jr. /Democrat of New York, has been temporarily closed to visitors.

An aide said the crush of preparing campaign literature for Mr. Powell's Aug. 12 primary contest necessitated barring visitors.

Mr. Powel is opposed for renomination as a Democrat, but has won Republican endorsement for an eighth term. New York Democratic leaders refused to support him because he came out for President Eisenhower in the 1956 election.

The aide said the office had already distributed two mailings of 75,000 pieces each, and a third, of similar number, was being prepared.

Meanwhile the staff has been augmented, and a sign on the office door reads: "this office closed to visitors."

Earl Brown's 'Desperate' Slurs Condemned by Benjamin Davis

BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, former city councilman, condemned as "desperation" a statement issued last week by Councilman Earl Brown in announcing his candidacy for the congressional seat now held by Adam Clayton Powell.

In a press conference Brown said he was running against Powell in the Aug. 12 primary for the same reason that he ran against Davis in 1949. Davis, he said, preached "class hatred" and "race hatred".

Davis, in a statement to the press, said Brown "evidently thinks he can defeat Powell by scandalizing my name." He called Brown's statement "slanderous and unprovoked".

In 1949, Davis said, Brown was the only Negro Tammany could find to run against him for city council, "even though I had been framed and convicted as they're trying to frame and convict Powell now."

He said Brown had been selected now by Tammany to "stab Powell in the back." No other "responsible or respected Negro leader" in Harlem would make the race, Davis said, though many are well qualified, and though they have legitimate differences with Powell.

★

BROWN WAS CHOSEN after the Rev. James Robinson refused to accept a Tammany-Liberal Party designation, despite pressure from Gov. Harriman and Carmine De Sapio, Tammany leader.

Robinson said that the Democratic leadership has "traduced" Harlem's political affairs over the years and "seems neither to have fully understood, nor accurately gauged the basic political attitudes, unspoken but deep resentments, and desires of the people of Harlem."

Earlier Roy Wilkins and Thurgood Marshall, NAACP leaders, had refused to oppose Powell in the congressional primary.
